

19th Annual Scuppernong River Festival Parade
Saturday, October 9, 2010
Columbia, North Carolina
10:00 AM

Start planning for the 19th Annual Scuppernong River Festival Parade at 10:00 on Saturday, October 9, 2010. This year the Scuppernong River Festival theme is Remembering our Past, Looking to our Future. The Festival Committee is inviting everyone to participate and help make the parade bigger and better than ever. Schools, churches, civic groups, municipalities and others are encouraged to join in with their bands, floats, cars, go-carts, boats, 4-wheelers, horses, and fire trucks.

We will meet Saturday morning at Columbia High School on US Highway 64. The parade participants need to be lined-up by 9:30 AM and the parade will begin promptly at 10:00 AM. Please fill out the enclosed registration form and return by September 30th.

The completed forms need to be returned to:

Helen Craddock
Tyrrell County Visitor's Center
PO Box 55
Columbia, NC 27925
252-796-0723
hcraddock@embarqmail.com

We will contact you with your position in the parade and a general description of where you need to be to line-up. There will be someone there Saturday morning to help you get to the right place.

Due to the safety of the crowd:

NO Burn-outs, wheelies or reckless driving

NO candy thrown from vehicles.

Thank you for participating in the 19th Annual Scuppernong River Festival Parade and Remembering our Past, Looking to our Future. We look forward to having a great time!
